Welcome to the New East Bay Open Studios 2019

This year marks our third year of carrying the torch and continuing the East Bay tradition that has enriched the creative curiosities and lives of art lovers and art collectors in the Bay Area and beyond for over 40 years.

We expanded the event to include a third weekend of open studios dedicated to the cities along the Hwy 680 Corridor. Take a drive over, have lunch in the area and visit with all of our EBOS artists along the corridor.

The iconic Oakland Scottish Rite Center on the shores of Lake Merritt is once again the site of our Opening Celebration/Preview Exhibition. This beautifully crafted, historical venue (circa 1927) will enhance your EBOS experience and give you the opportunity to preview the work of over 70 of our EBOS artists and meet them in person. Enjoy live music and inspiration from the artists and the surroundings. Please be our guest by visiting our website at EastBayOpenStudios.com/guest to receive an invitation.

Our 2019 open studio artist roster includes over 200 artists, in 16 different East Bay cities, comprised of a wonderful mix of emerging artists, mid-career artists, renowned internationally-collected established artists, and every layer in between. Whether you’re a first-time collector or a seasoned one, there is something for everyone at EBOS. Pick your favorites, turn on your GPS and away you go!

Thank you for joining us and for supporting the artists and art community in the East Bay. Have fun on your tours and happy art collecting!

With excitement and gratitude,

Painting
James A. Bonacci
• Weekend 2 and 3
I write poems about art, and the surfaces, materials and colors I use in my art. Then, I create visual art about the poems and words I have written.
